Red Bluff Police Department Organizational Chart

Message from the Chief

On behalf of the men and women of the Red Bluff Police Department, we are pleased to present our 2016 Annual Report. This report provides comprehensive information and statistics on a wide variety of subjects including crime, staffing, and units within the Department. We hope this report provides insight into the invaluable personnel we have along with the variety and volumes of work they dealt with during 2016.

A year of growth and change is the best way to describe the Red Bluff Police Department during the past year. Five promotions occurred during the year and a total of nine new employees were hired; 4 sworn police officers, 4 community service officers (CSO's), and 1 records specialist. This alone generated considerable change as approximately 23% of the department's staff joined the organization during 2016.

Another noteworthy change was the introduction of CSO's to the patrol cadre. After considerable study and contemplation, the decision was made to hire three CSO's rather than two police officers. These CSO's were dedicated to handle low level patrol related calls such as thefts, vandalisms, and minor collisions. This decision has proven to be beneficial as data indicates the CSO's are handling 24% of the reports, thus fulfilling one of the primary goals which was to create some unallocated time for police officers.

As you explore this report, I would encourage you to take a moment to examine our "10 Year Statistical Comparison" section that will provide a snapshot of the crime in our City as well as insight into our agency and some of the statistical data associated with our work. As you read through these pages, it will reflect a high level of activity and a multitude of challenges. It will also demonstrate the quality and professionalism of the members of RBPd.

As you examine the report and statistical data, you may notice the continued trend of increases in many crime classifications. While 2016 resulted in an overall increase of 5.4% in UCR Part 1 Crimes, it was considerably less than the increase experienced in 2015 (12.6%). It is worth noting that Red Bluff is not alone in this regard as California as a whole continues to experience substantial increases in crime subsequent to laws such as AB 109 (enacted 10/1/2011), Proposition 47 (enacted 11/4/2014), and Proposition 57 (enacted 11/8/2016) that have changed the way we address crime and the consequences for criminal behavior. These laws have led to thousands of individuals remaining on our streets who formerly would have been incarcerated for the crimes they commit.

Despite these statistics, your police department is filled with honorable members who are motivated to work with you to combat crime and disorder. We look forward to working together in partnership with the members of our community to truly make Red Bluff a great place to live.

"It requires that a whole team of people pull together in a single, concerted effort to attain a common goal."

DIVISION

OPERATIONS DIVISION

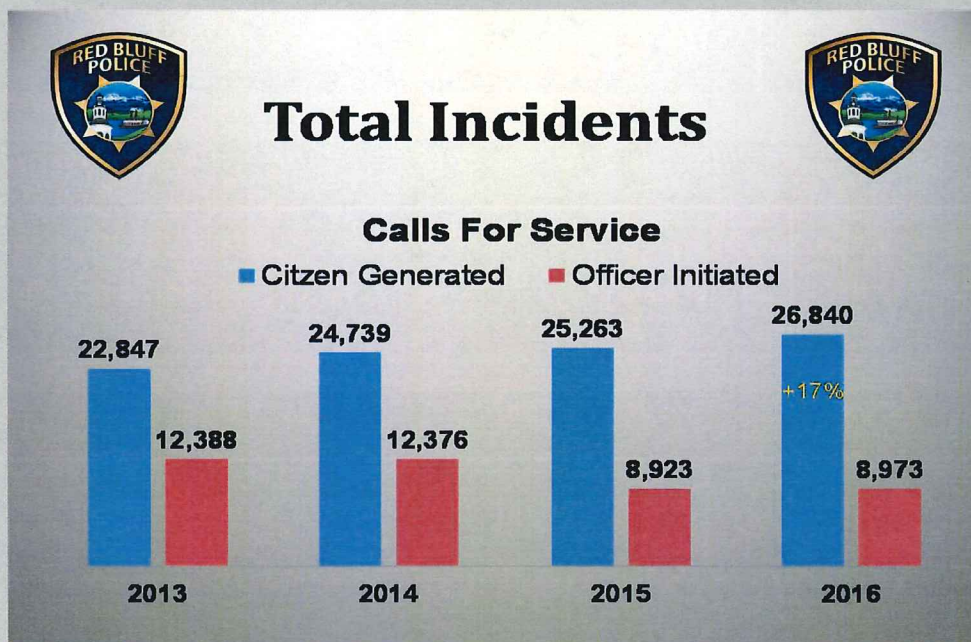

CAPTAIN QUINTAN ORTEGA

The Operations Division is comprised of Sergeants, Corporals, Officers, and Community Service Officers (CSO) whose primary function is to deliver initial police services to the community. These uniformed personnel provide police response to calls for service as well as the initial response to an emergency 24 hours a day / 7 days a week.

Other personnel within the Operations Division include two fulltime School Resource Officers (SRO) and one traffic officer, when available. The Volunteers in Police Services (VIPS) also fall within the Operations Division. Programs associated with this division not previously mentioned include K9, COPPS, Field Training, Special Events, Professional Development, GREAT, and SWAT.

The Operations Division accounts for most of the Department's measurable workload and is the most visible in the community as they are usually the primary contact for persons seeking police services. All personnel within the Operations Division worked persistently throughout 2016 to address a year filled with challenges. These men and women routinely made sacrifices for the betterment of the Department and to improve the quality of life within the City of Red Bluff.

The subsequent charts and programs represent some of the statistical data involving the Operations Division.

K9 PROGRAM

2016 marked the fifth year of having a dual trained K-9 capable of protecting officers as well as sniffing out drugs. Sergeant Mike Brown and his partner "Many" continued to produce positive results in the field and through community demonstrations.

On March 12, 2016 we had our K9 fundraiser at the Red Bluff Community Center. The event was a success and allowed us to fund an additional K9 for the police department. K9 Aries and his handler Officer James Talley graduated the 5 week training school in October 2016.

The following chart will show the K9 Unit activity for 2016.

The K9 Steering Committee and Red Bluff Police Department continue to remain grateful to all who donated their time and or money to establish the K9 Program and to keep it going. As a program completely funded through donations, the K9 team continued to prosper during 2016 as a result of the collective efforts of our community. We sincerely thank all who have helped as we could not have accomplished this without the incredible community support.

VOLUNTEERS IN POLICE SERVICE (VIPS)

The RBPB VIPS program was established in 2013. Since then, the volunteers have donated over 6023 hours of service to the Red Bluff Police Department and the community. Kathy Engel was honored as Volunteer of the Year for 2016. Kathy spent countless hours helping in the records unit.

Our VIPS Roster currently includes:

Lead VIP Clay Parker, Dan Jackson, Lilly Parker, Don Whiteside, Tim Weatherson, Felicia Gould, Kathy Engel, and Kim Ochoa.

The RBPB is conducting a VIPS Academy in 2017, which will increase our VIPS Personnel.

VIPS contribute to the Department in a number of key and valuable ways. Below is a brief list of a few of the key VIPS contributions during 2016:

- Volunteered a total of 6,023 hours, since 2013.
- Participated in the following Areas:
 - Records
 - Property and Evidence
 - Vehicle Maintenance
 - Crime Scene Containment

The VIPS program proved to be even more beneficial than ever anticipated. The first four years of the program have demonstrated what a small cadre of committed individuals can do to help their community. We look forward to their continued success during 2017.

COMMUNITY ORIENTED POLICING PROGRAMS

The Police Department divides the City of Red Bluff into five different geographical regions (Areas of Responsibility) and designates each area with a sergeant and one or two officers for community oriented policing purposes. Each Area of Responsibility participates in Neighborhood Watch meetings and the Random Citizen Contact (RCC) program. The RCC program consists of an officer contacting a citizen randomly for no other reason than to connect with them and interact positively outside of a call for service.

2016 Totals	Random Citizen Contacts	Neighborhood Watch Meetings
Area #1	64	3
Area #2	24	1
Area #3	89	3
Area #4	54	1
Area #5	41	0

FIELD TRAINING PROGRAM

During this calendar year, four Police Officers and four Community Service Officers (CSO's) were hired. All of them participated in a Field Training Program.

The officers start their field training program by participating in a two week orientation period. During this time, the officers are trained on various use of force options, computer use, weaponless defense trainings, first aid, CPR, RIMS computer system, vehicle operations and property and evidence processing. They are also required to review department policies and procedures. They are given a tour of the City (schools, hospital, courthouse, Alternatives to Violence) and are required to participate in some type of community service such as feeding the homeless.

After they complete the two week orientation period, the officers begin their fourteen week field training program. Each officer is assigned to a Field Training Officer during this time. The officers are taught report writing, vehicle operations, field interview and safety techniques, crime elements, case laws, court procedures and preparation, and how to handle the numerous types of calls for service this department handles. The trainees are heavily scrutinized during field training and have to meet department and P.O.S.T. performance standards before they are released on their own.

PATROL COMMUNITY SERVICE OFFICERS

The Patrol CSO's also participated in an orientation period prior to field training. This orientation period was unique in that it was a three week program, similar to a mini academy, complete P.O.S.T. Learning Domains specific to patrol related CSO duties. After the orientation period, each CSO participated in a nine week, field training program. During field training, the CSO's were assigned to a field training officer and were required to meet P.O.S.T. and department standards before completing the program.

The Patrol CSO's completed their training and began working autonomously in October 2016. During the last quarter of 2016, the three patrol assigned CSO's handled 24% of the reports solidifying their place on patrol.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Each year Police Department personnel work a variety of special events in the community. Some of these events require traffic control, while others only require additional patrol personnel or officers to be present. SRO Martinez

SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER

During the 2016 school year, Officer Lela Martinez was introduced to Red Bluff High School as their new School Resource Officer. Upon accepting this role, SRO Martinez completed trainings and participated in scheduled school events which have aided in her role as a SRO.

SRO Martinez prepared a presentation on the warning signs of the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children, which she presented to the Red Bluff High School staff. SRO Martinez has also worked with the Department of Education and Tehama County Health Services in providing, "Stay off the Grass" classes to several students though out the year. These classes provide knowledge to our juveniles about the dangers and chemical effects of marijuana on their brains.

In late 2016, SRO Martinez contacted Vista Middle and Bidwell Elementary Schools and is coordinating presentations for parents and students, to promote awareness on current youth dangers i.e. Cyber bullying, the dangers of social media, and teen dating.

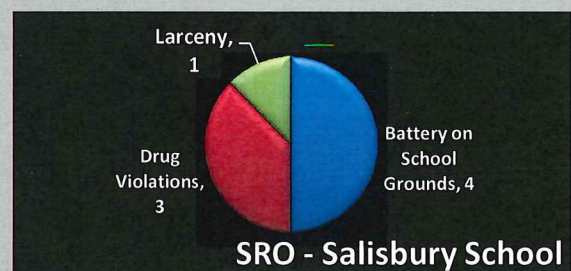

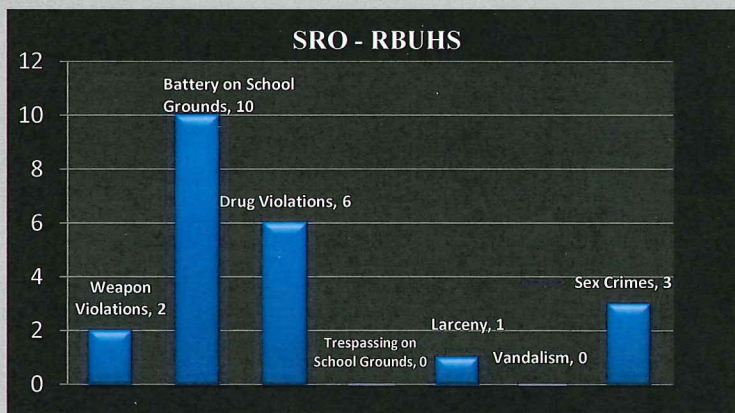

While performing her duties at the Red Bluff High School, SRO Martinez has also been successful in coordinating mentorship alliances between varying students. In 2016, SRO Martinez took six students, whom she had contacted for criminal action, to two separate community events. This allowed the students to see the benefits to being active in their community as well as having positive and encouraging contact with SRO Martinez.

For the 2016 school year, between January 1, 2016 & June 3, 2016, SRO Thomas took 52 reports and made 38 arrests. Between August 10, 2016 & December 31, 2016, SRO Martinez took 41 reports and made 19 arrests.

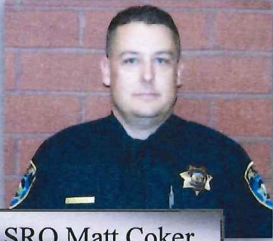

SRO Thomas

The below chart represents only a small portion of the activity associated with the Red Bluff High School & Salisbury High School:

SRO /G.R.E.A.T. OFFICER

SRO Matt Coker

SRO Coker started at Vista Preparatory Academy in August of 2016. Detective Baxter is the primary GREAT Program Instructor; however, SRO Coker assists in the program as needed. SRO Coker has helped teach the GREAT Program for one semester and has helped teach more than 90 students in the program so far.

Between January 1, 2016 and December 31, 2016 SRO Coker took 156 criminal reports.

Of those 156 criminal cases only 2 of them included cases originating from incidents that took place at Vista Preparatory Academy.

There were NO gang related incidents during the Fall 2016 semester at Vista Preparatory Academy. This is one indication of the success the GREAT Program is having.

Detective Baxter and SRO Coker taught the GREAT (Gang Resistance Education and Training) classes during the fall 2016 semester to all of the Vista 7th grade classes.

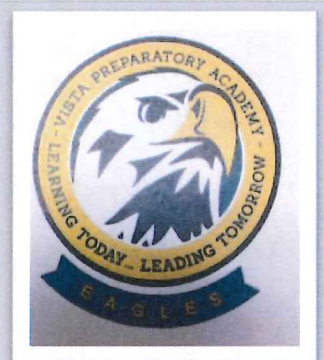

- GREAT classes go for 13 weeks each semester – one class a week – 1 hour class times
- 90+ Seventh grade students completed the GREAT Program during the 2016 fall semester. More than 600 students have completed the GREAT Program with either SRO Baxter or SRO Coker at this time.
- There are a total of 7, seventh grade classes at Vista Preparatory Academy.
- Three classes were taught in the fall semester.
- Four classes are currently being taught this spring semester.
- Each of the seven classes planned/organized and completed a “Making Vista a better place project.”
- Projects included: Positive message posters, a mural to be hung on campus and various Power Point proposals with topics designed to improve the school.

Det. Sean Baxter

GREAT Classes include educating the students in the following life skills:

- The truth about gangs and violence
- How gangs and violence can affect their future
- Defining their roles in the school/community
- Development of goals and methods to obtain those goals
- Development of decision making skills
- Development of effective communication skills
- Development of effective refusal skills
- Developing skills and ways to deal with peer pressure
- Development of effective anger management skills
- Development of effective conflict resolution techniques

In addition to teaching the GREAT classes, SRO Coker has partnered with the Vista Preparatory Academy staff as well as the Red Bluff High school SRO. SRO Coker is also responsible for Jackson Heights School, Bidwell School Metteer School and the Community Day School. SRO Coker attended the yearly Safety Summit Meeting. SRO Coker is working with the health and safety personnel at the Red Bluff Union Elementary School District regarding improved safety and security at Vista Preparatory Academy.

SRO Coker is also a leading member of the interagency homeless activists and clean up team. That team is responsible for cleaning up illegal homeless camps while attempting to offer services such as mental health help, relocation and other resources to the residents of the camps. To date, the team has cleaned up more than 13 large camps which contained both health risks and large area of litter and hazardous debris fields.

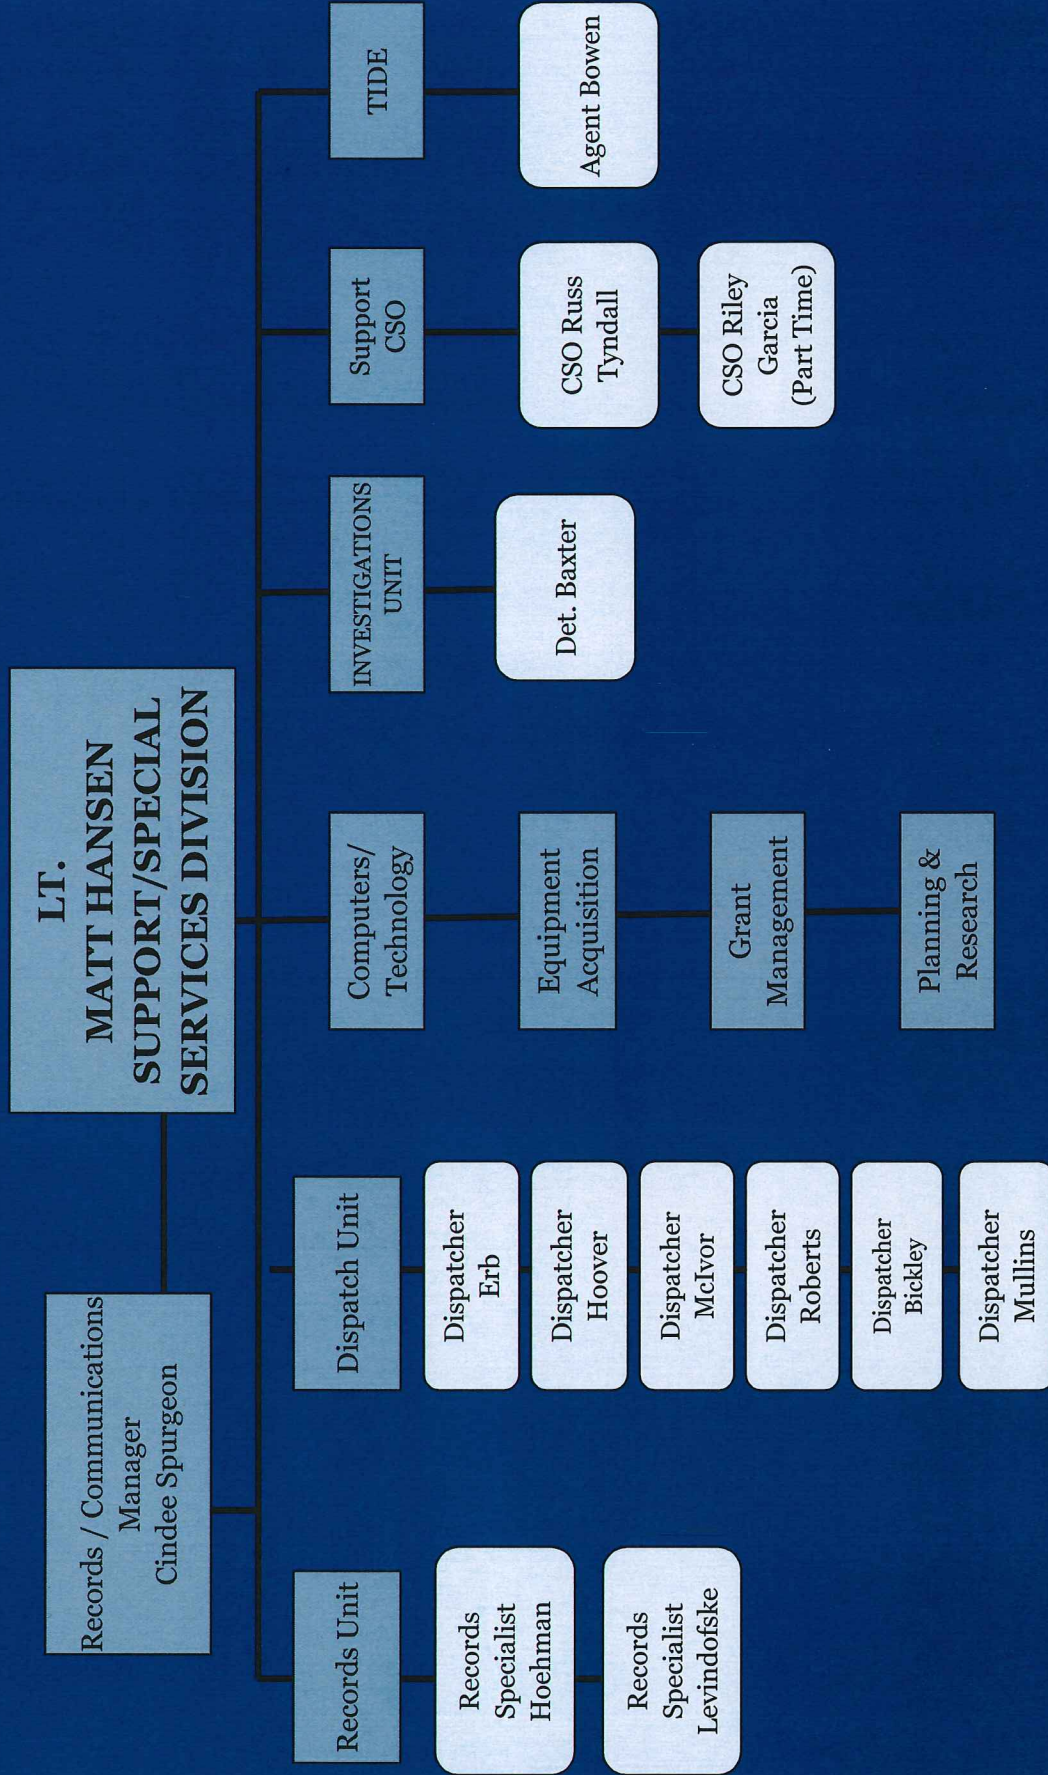

SRO Coker has also become a certified ALICE active shooter instructor. Along with district and school staff, SRO Coker has begun the process of implementing the ALICE program into the Red Bluff Elementary Schools.

In addition to his SRO duties, SRO Coker has also worked closely with the investigations unit at the Red Bluff Police Department.

Red Bluff Police Department Support / Special Services Division

SUPPORT / SPECIAL SERVICES DIVISION

LIEUTENANT MATT HANSEN

The Support/Special Services Division is comprised of several units that include Investigations (Detectives), Records, Community Services Officers (CSO), and Dispatch. While each of these units vary greatly in the scope of work performed, all are vital to the mission and goals of the Red Bluff Police Department.

This was Lt. Hansen's first full year in his new position and he was tasked with many projects. The first was to update the station with new floors, fresh paint and cabinetry. This project was done on a shoestring budget and its success is attributed to many of the police department employees that volunteered their time and talent to make it happen. The AB109 woodshop also helped with the project by refinishing and building new cabinets.

In 2016, three new RBPd patrol SUVs were purchased and placed into service. The funds for this purchase were allocated from the public safety tax voters approved.

Homeland Security grant funds were also obtained and put to use to purchase new dispatch radios which were "end of life". This project was completed prior to the necessary upgrade to the 911 telephone equipment which is scheduled to occur in 2017.

With the help of Community Service Russ Tyndall, Lt. Hansen proposed a new property and evidence building to improve the integrity and space necessary for the storage of evidence, found property and property held for safekeeping. This building is currently in the design phase and it is anticipated public safety funds will be used to complete this project in 2017.

Sadly, many of the cases RBPd detectives investigate are sex crimes. Fortunately, the Sexual Assault Felony Enforcement (SAFE) grant provides some funds to RBPd to help offset the cost of investigating these crimes and to purchase equipment to facilitate the investigation of sex crimes. In 2016, the RBPd was able to obtain a supplemental appropriation of SAFE grant funding in order to help purchase a new vehicle for the sex crimes detective. The grant covered 75% of the cost of the vehicle and 25% came from the general fund.

2016 continued to be a busy year in the Investigative Unit. This year Sgt. Graham was added as a detective sergeant. Sgt. Graham is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the detective unit. Sgt. Graham also has the responsibility of supervising the RBPd Field Training Program.

Sgt. Graham and Sgt. Busekist were selected and trained to be crisis negotiators in 2016. They will be a valuable addition to the Tehama County Interagency Crisis Negotiations team which has been reactivated after a long period of dormancy because of a lack of trained personnel.

The RBPd Support/Special Services Division continues to look for new and innovative ways to fight crime in the City. In 2017, the police department will begin to use license plate reader technology and Intelligence Led Policing to guide the efforts of patrol officers so crime can be impacted in ways that improve the quality of life and increase the safety and security for residents.

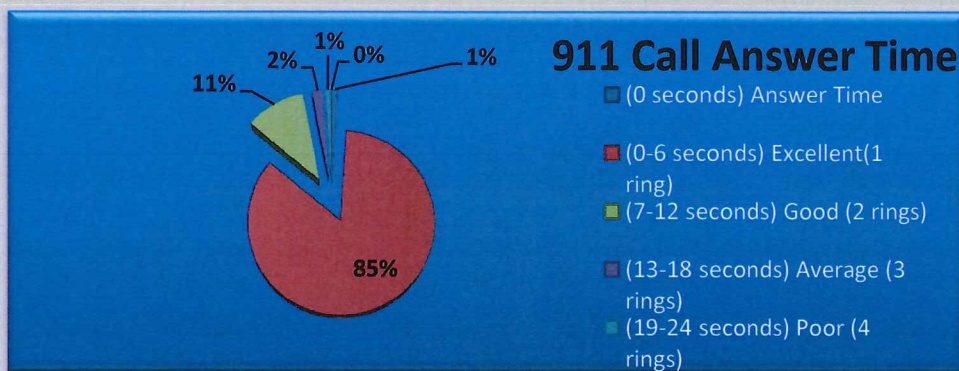

COMMUNICATIONS CENTER

RECORDS / COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER CINDEE SPURGEON

Welcome to Red Bluff Police Department's Communications Center. When fully staffed, it consists of six dispatchers and a manager who supervises the center. The center is staffed 24 hours a day, 365 days of the year. The dispatchers work rotating 12 hour shifts, and there are usually one or two dispatchers on duty at any time.

The Communications Center is the primary PSAP (Public Safety Answering Point) for the City of Red Bluff. This means that all 911 calls originating in the city are routed to the center, including wireless calls. The dispatchers' primary responsibilities include answering seven 911 emergency telephone lines, 4 business telephone lines and several inter-department telephone lines that must be routed properly. They keep track of all on-duty patrol officers, detectives, sergeants, community service officers, and other miscellaneous personnel. They monitor Red Bluff PD's primary radio channel along with other radio channels such as the Tehama County Sheriff's Department, the California Highway Patrol, The Red Bluff Fire Department and Red Bluff Public Works so they are aware of incidents that may require police assistance. Dispatchers use a Computer Aided Dispatch system to input calls for service and to keep track of on-duty units. They prioritize these calls for service quickly and efficiently and dispatch appropriate unit(s) to in progress or cold calls. Besides answering emergency phone calls and radio dispatching, RBPd dispatchers inquire and update into CLETS databases, complete data entry on pawns, citations and other miscellaneous paperwork, and also scan documents into cases and incidents.
