

Choose Robbinsville ...
For Your Home

Robbinsville
T O W N S H I P
BE AT THE CENTER OF IT ALL

Robbinsville, New Jersey is centrally located between New York City and Philadelphia. With easy access to wonderful primary schools and higher education institutions, sports and recreation venues in addition to social and cultural centers, our growing community of 15,476 residents is a great place to start a family, or grow an existing family. The vibrant regional economy, a myriad of public transportation options, a crime rate well below the national average, consistently rising home values and a very high quality of life makes Robbinsville an ideal community for families to Be At The Center Of It All!

Robbinsville
T O W N S H I P
BE AT THE CENTER OF IT ALL

Choose Robbinsville ... For Your Home

HIGH QUALITY OF LIFE & LOCAL ECONOMY

Robbinsville has a high quality of life and strong local economy. With:

- Average age of a Robbinsville resident is 39.1 years
- Unprecedented nine consecutive years of a flat or reduced municipal tax rate
- Average home value of $378,500
- Home values increased by 24 percent between 2017–2021 with a home on the market for an average of only 29 days as of July, 2021
- Population of 15,476 with 5,094 households (2020 Census)
- Total household expenditures above the national average

RECREATION & ENTERTAINMENT

Robbinsville is the proud home of 2021 Stanley Cup Champion Ross Colton (Tampa Bay Lightning), as well as the 2014 Little League Softball World Championship team. Robbinsville offers a wide-range of local activities, parks and programs that include:

- A vibrant local park system, including a new inclusive playground for all abilities at Tantum Park and 158 acres of open space via the acquisition of the former Miry Run Golf Course in 2018
- A plethora of community baseball, basketball, football, volleyball, soccer, pickleball, bocce, lacrosse fields and courts
- Mercer County Park is minutes away, featuring 2,500 acres of indoor and outdoor activities
- Nearby shopping at Town Center (North & South), Foxmoor Shopping Center, Quakerbridge Mall, Freehold Raceway Mall, Princeton Market Fair Mall, Hamilton Marketplace and Jackson Premium Outlets
- A wide-range of dining from coffee shops to family friendly dining
- Nationally-recognized pizza establishments DeLorenzo's and Papa's Tomato Pies
- One-hour proximity to world-famous New Jersey beaches, as well as the Pocono mountains and ski resorts
- One of the state's most respected Senior Centers, along with an adjacent library with a variety of social, health and educational programs

QUALITY EDUCATION

- Graduation rate of 97 percent with average SAT and ACT scores in the 76 percentile nationally
- College prep curriculum specifically designed to challenge students' academic potential
- Cutting-edge programs in technology, engineering, business and award-winning robotics
- Degree programs and higher education locally includes Princeton University, Rutgers University, Rider University, Thomas Edison University, The College of New Jersey and Mercer County Community College

CULTURAL DIVERSITY

Cultural diversity contributes to Robbinsville's strength with residents, charities and faith-based organizations spanning several cultures and religions.

Robbinsville Economic Development Advisory Committee (EDAC)
2298 Route 33
Robbinsville, NJ 08691 (609) 259-3600
EDAC@robbinsville.net