CITY OF SANTA FE SPRINGS TO CLOSE ALL CITY PARKS FOURTH OF JULY WEEKEND

In response to the recent increase of coronavirus (COVID-19) cases of more than 60 percent in the City in the last two weeks, the City of Santa Fe Springs will be closing all City parks to the public this holiday weekend beginning Friday, July 3 through Sunday, July 5. City parks will reopen to the public for passive recreation on Monday, July 6. The City parks that will be closed are as follows:

- Heritage Park
- Lakeview Park
- Little Lake Park
- Los Nietos Park
- Santa Fe Springs Park
- Lake Center Athletic Fields
- Jersey Athletic Fields

The City is making every effort to keep the community safe and limit the potential spread of the coronavirus. The City of Santa Fe Springs thanks the community for all of their cooperation thus far and kindly reminds the public to please continue to wear masks, practice social distancing and wash your hands as much as possible.
