

PSE responds to COVID-19 outbreak

As a provider of an essential service to their customers, PSE is working to ensure they are there for their customers, the community and their employees as the coronavirus impacts our region.

PSE understands that all of this is affecting each of their customers in different ways. In an effort to help, PSE will not be disconnecting customers during this time and have taken additional steps to help customers & the communities which may be suffering from financial hardships.

To learn more about billing and payment options, visit: pse.com/covid19.