Audit Summary

City of Sedro-Woolley
Skagit County
September 3, 2008

ABOUT THE AUDIT

This report contains the results of our independent accountability audit of the City of Sedro-Woolley.

We performed audit procedures to determine whether the City complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures. We also examined City management's accountability for public resources. Our work focused on specific areas that have potential for abuse and misuse of public resources.

Areas examined during the audit were selected using financial transactions from January 1, 2007, through December 31, 2007.

RESULTS

The City complied with state laws and regulations and its own policies and procedures in the areas we examined. Internal controls were adequate to safeguard public assets.

RELATED REPORTS

Our opinion on the City's financial statements and compliance with federal program requirements is provided in a separate report, which includes the City's financial statements.

CLOSING REMARKS

We thank City officials and personnel for their assistance and cooperation during the audit.

Description of the City

City of Sedro-Woolley Skagit County September 3, 2008

ABOUT THE CITY

The City of Sedro-Woolley was incorporated in December 1898 and currently serves approximately 10,030 citizens within Skagit County. Services provided by the City include police, fire, building inspection, general administration, wastewater treatment, solid waste disposal, legal administration, library, street construction and maintenance, parks and a cemetery. An elected, seven-member Council governs the City with an independently elected Mayor. The City employs a staff of approximately 60 employees and operates on an annual General Fund budget of approximately $4 million.

AUDIT HISTORY

The City is audited on an annual basis. In 2003 we reported a finding for inadequate internal controls over the Municipal Court, which was resolved in 2004. There have been no findings in the last four audits and we believe this reflects the City's desire and commitment to maintain a strong financial system.

ELECTED OFFICIALS

These officials served during the audit period:

Mayor
City Council:

Mike Anderson
Ted Meamber
Tony Splane

Audit Areas Examined

City of Sedro-Woolley Skagit County September 3, 2008

In keeping with general auditing practices, we do not examine every portion of the City of Sedro-Woolley's financial activities during each audit. The areas examined were those representing the highest risk of noncompliance, misappropriation or misuse. Other areas are audited on a rotating basis over the course of several years. The following areas of the City were examined during this audit period:

ACCOUNTABILITY

We evaluated the City's accountability and compliance with laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements in the following areas:

- Utility billings
- Disbursements
- Disposition of city assets (old city hall)
- Citizen concern
- Conflict of interest/ethics laws
- Restricted funds (hotel/motel tax)
- Open Public Meetings Act

FEDERAL PROGRAMS

We evaluated internal controls and tested compliance with federal program requirements, as applicable, for the City's major federal program, which is listed in the Federal Summary section of the financial statement and single audit report.

FINANCIAL AREAS

Our opinion on the City's financial statements is provided in a separate report. That report includes the City's financial statements and other required financial information. We examined the financial activity and balances of the City including:

- Cash and investments
- Revenues
- Expenditures
- Financial condition
- Long-term debt
- Overall presentation of the financial statements
- Financial statement preparation

ABOUT THE STATE AUDITOR'S OFFICE

---

The State Auditor's Office is established in the state's Constitution and is part of the executive branch of state government. The State Auditor is elected by the citizens of Washington and serves four-year terms.

Our mission is to work in cooperation with our audit clients and citizens as an advocate for government accountability. As an elected agency, the State Auditor's Office has the independence necessary to objectively perform audits and investigations. Our audits are designed to comply with professional standards as well as to satisfy the requirements of federal, state, and local laws.

The State Auditor's Office has 300 employees who are located around the state to deliver our services effectively and efficiently. Approximately 65 percent of our staff are certified public accountants or hold other certifications and advanced degrees.

Our regular audits look at financial information and compliance with state, federal and local laws on the part of all local governments, including schools, and all state agencies, including institutions of higher education. We also perform fraud and whistleblower investigations. In addition, we have the authority to conduct performance audits of state agencies and local governments.

The results of our audits are widely distributed through a variety of reports, which are available on our Web site. We continue to refine our reporting efforts to ensure the results of our audits are useful and understandable.

We take our role as partners in accountability seriously. We provide training and technical assistance to governments and have an extensive program to coordinate audit efficiency and to ensure high-quality audits.
