PUBLIC COMMENT

4/28/14

Anthony Abbate of 24518 Brompton Way Lyon Township introduced himself as a South Lyon School Board candidate. He further stated he is a former South Lyon teacher. He gave a brief background of his family. He further stated he is running to bring educators perspective to the School Board.

Darren Lane of 678 Hagadorn stated Pumpkinfest is a time bomb waiting to explode. It is over run, and the roads are blocked people cannot get through town. He further stated if anyone ever gets hurt crossing the streets the City will be liable. He stated there is a huge fire hazard because of having the pumpkins sitting on a hay stack in the middle of town. If it started fire, all buildings in the downtown would be in danger. Mr. Lane stated the beer tent is over loaded and over run and now it is to be held on City property which again will make the City liable. He further stated there is no disclosure on the money that comes in or out of Pumpkinfest. He stated City employees have to work on this function as well, cleaning the streets and putting up signs. It is strictly a liability and there should be at least a five million dollar bond on the Pumpkinfest as well as the beer tent to protect the taxpayers of South Lyon.

Carl Richards of 390 Lenox stated hole in the parking lot at the BP gas station was fixed today, but there are other things that need to be fixed. He stated he has talked with the Company, there are no work orders to fix the brick wall, the light or the car wash, and that might be of a concern to Council. He further stated the Planning Commission was successful regarding the property that was previously known as the Oakland Forty, and he will be working closely with Jesse VanDecreek regarding certain things he is aware of about the property that not everyone knows.

Councilman Kramer asked why the wages went from $270,000 to $367,000? City Manager Cook stated that is cost over runs as well as his wages and the buyout of Murphy. It could be lower in the future because we have some people off, but this is the worst case scenario. If there is a change he will suggest another budget amendment. Councilman Kramer asked why the increase in professional services of $25,000. City Manager Cook stated that was for HRC and the Planner.

Councilman Kramer stated he had read in the paper that Brighton has won a case against a property owner regarding blight and maybe we can look into the ordinances that made that possible and maybe we can apply them to our ordinances.

Chief Collins stated he has not seen a particular issue down there, they are handling their own traffic control and they have barriers there. Councilman Wedell stated he was at the light there, and there is no way for the kids to cross. He further stated he would like people to be a little more careful going through that intersection.

Mayor Wallace stated we did a tree planting in honor of Arbor Day at Paul Baker Park.

Mayor Wallace stated Lannie Young from Lyon Township has been asking if the City would consider helping the with money for paving Griswold Road.

Mayor Wallace stated that he has heard some rumblings regarding a gas service company that is soliciting in our town. He stated people are saying they are very push and aggressive. He asked if there is anything we can do. Chief Collins stated if anyone feels threatened or harassed they should call the Police Department and they will be happy to come out and speak with them.

Mayor Wallace stated that Council interviewed 5 people for the City Manager position on Saturday and has offered the opportunity to Lynne Ladner. Our goal is she will start on June 1st. It was nice to see Council scrutinize all five candidates and for Council to agree on the same candidate.

AGENDA NOTE

OLD New Business: Item 1

MEETING DATE: April 28, 2014

PERSON PLACING ITEM ON AGENDA: City Attorney

AGENDA TOPIC: Second.
~~First~~ reading of Ordinance Amending Section 58-77 - Begging

EXPLANATION OF TOPIC: In November 2013, I advised the City that the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeal's opinion in Speet v Schuette, 726 F3d 367 (2013) held that a Michigan statute making begging in a public place a misdemeanor was facially unconstitutional under First Amendment principles. The ACLU contacted me and requested that the City repeal its begging ordinance on the basis of the similarities between its ordinance section 58-77 and the statute in Speet. I responded to the ACLU that the City was not enforcing section 58-77 and would evaluate whether to repeal or amend its begging ordinance.

Attached please find proposed Ordinance 03-14 amending Section 58-77 to prohibit "aggressive begging." Several communities in Southeast Michigan have adopted ordinances containing similar language, and it appears that this approach to prohibiting aggressive begging is constitutional and acceptable to ACLU based its lack of objection.

MATERIALS ATTACHED AS SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS:

- Proposed Ordinance Amending Begging Ordinance Section 58-77

POSSIBLE COURSES OF ACTION: Approve/do not approve first

RECOMMENDATION: Second.
Approve ~~first~~ reading

SUGGESTED MOTION: Motion by _____, seconded by _____, to approve the ~~first~~ reading of Ordinance 03-14 amending Section 58-77 to prohibit aggressive begging.

Second.

ORDINANCE NO. 03-14

CITY OF SOUTH LYON
OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CITY OF SOUTH LYON CODE OF ORDINANCES, CHAPTER 58 - OFFENSES AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS, ARTICLE II - OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE, SECTION 58-77 - BEGGING, IN ORDER TO REVISE EXISTING REGULATIONS RELATING TO BEGGING AND TO PROVIDE A SPECIFIC PROHIBITION AGAINST AGGRESSIVE BEGGING.

THE CITY OF SOUTH LYON ORDAINS:

PART I. Amendment of Section 58-77 - Begging.

Section 58-77 "Begging," Article II, "Offenses Against Public Peace," Chapter 58 "Offenses and Miscellaneous Provisions," of the City of South Lyon Code of Ordinances is amended to read as follows in its entirety:

Section 58-77 - Begging.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Code of Ordinances, or authorized by law, it shall be unlawful for a person to beg or solicit for immediate payment of money or goods from another person under any of the following circumstances:
- (1) On property of, or in a building containing, a bank, credit union, or other financial institution that as a principal business, maintains accounts for on-site deposits and withdrawals of cash by customers.

PERSON PLACING ITEM ON AGENDA: Lt. Christopher Sovik / Police Department

AGENDA TOPIC: Sale of Assets

EXPLANATION OF TOPIC: A number of unused, unclaimed, or abandoned items have recently been put up for auction and sold. As of today, the police department has listed and sold 24 items through the MITN (Michigan Inter-Governmental Trading Network) website. Of those 24 items, two have sold for over $500.00 with prior approval from City Council. A 2004 Dodge Intrepid was taken out of service almost two years ago because of various problems incurring expense for repairs. In 2013, we sold an identical vehicle which received a final bid of $1525.01. I anticipate the vehicle selling for more than $500.00 requiring Council's approval. Therefore, I am requesting Council's permission to approve the sale of the vehicle should the high bid exceed the $500 threshold. It should also be noted that we do add 5% to all final bids to cover any and all City costs.

Board Members,

As discussed at this morning's RRRASOC Board of Directors meeting, the Oakland County Board of Commissioners has approved an amendment to the Oakland County Solid Waste Management Plan. The amendment involves the inclusion of a new solid waste transfer station and waste processing facility to be located at 900 Baldwin Road in Pontiac, which is the site of the former Pontiac Fiero manufacturing facility.

The amendment request was made by Rizzo Environmental Services and was reviewed and approved by the Oakland County Solid Waste Planning Committee and the Oakland County Board of Commissioners, in accordance with State law. The applicant has also entered into a host community agreement with the City of Pontiac.

Since State law stipulates that amendments to a county solid waste management plan must obtain the approval of 67% of the municipalities within the county, the attached material requesting action has been sent to your community by Dan Hunter, Deputy Director, Oakland County Economic Development and Community Affairs.

I have reviewed the amendment request both in my capacity as General Manager of RRRASOC and as a member of the Oakland County Solid Waste Planning Committee. I have found no compelling reason not to approve the request.

Additionally, schedule permitting, I would be happy to attend the City Council meeting when this item is on the agenda for consideration.

Please let me know if you have any questions or comments on the matter.

Rod,

Here is a brief overview of the proposed amendment to the Oakland County Solid Waste Plan:

The amendment involves the inclusion of a new solid waste transfer station and waste processing facility to be located at 900 Baldwin Road in Pontiac, which is the site of the former Pontiac Fiero manufacturing facility. The new facility will allow the applicant, Rizzo Environmental Services, to consolidate the refuse collected in communities they serve, load it into transfer trailers, and deliver the material to an appropriate landfill. The purpose of doing so is to eliminate the need for them to direct haul with the curbside route trucks to area landfills. It reduces overall truck miles and gives the company more flexibility and choice in terms of which landfill is selected for disposal.

The waste processing component of the request gives the company the ability to sort select materials directly from the waste stream at the transfer station. Typically, cardboard and metals that have market value and which haven't already been retrieved via separate collection are pulled from the waste stream at a processing plant. Once those materials are pulled out, the remaining material is loaded into transfer trailers for shipment to a landfill.

The amendment request was reviewed and approved by the Oakland County Solid Waste Planning Committee and the Oakland County Board of Commissioners, in accordance with State law. The applicant has also entered into a host community agreement with the City of Pontiac.

Since State law stipulates that amendments to a county solid waste management plan must obtain the approval of 67% of the municipalities within the county, the attached material requesting action has been sent to your community by Dan Hunter, Deputy Director, Oakland County Economic Development and Community Affairs.

I have reviewed the amendment request both in my capacity as General Manager of RRRASOC and as a member of the Oakland County Solid Waste Planning Committee. I have found no compelling reason not to approve the request.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

Board Members,

As indicated in the e-mail below, I am attaching a request from Dan Hunter, Deputy Director for Oakland County Economic Development and Community Affairs, to have your respective communities review and approve an amendment to the Oakland County Solid Waste Management Plan. The City Manager and City Clerk in each community should have received the attached correspondence directly from Oakland County but it appears that the request did not reach the intended targets in all communities, which is why I am resending it.

Also, it is my understanding that the applicant, Rizzo Environmental Services has been contacting individual communities concerning this matter. As I have mentioned in the past, Oakland County is the appropriate lead agency and point of contact on this matter. Consistent with the state law governing county solid waste plans, a plan amendment request was submitted by the applicant to the County, which reviewed it as described in my e-mail and Dan's letter. Once an amendment is approved by the County Solid Waste Planning Committee AND the Board of Commissioners, the County then coordinates approval by the local units of government within the County before sending it to the MDEQ for final approval.

I spoke with a representative of Rizzo this morning. He indicated that his contact with individual communities is designed to allow them to keep track of the agendas of all of the Oakland County communities and to ensure that they have a representative available should the community wish.

As I've mentioned, I can also be available if necessary and schedule permitting. However, in my opinion, this item is one that merits action via the consent agenda.

Finally, please let me know when you have this item scheduled for action, if it is on the consent agenda, and if you would like me present.

Thanks,
Mike

Dear Local Community Clerks and Managers:

As we informed you in October of last year, Oakland County received a formal request for an amendment to Oakland County's Solid Waste Management Plan. This request is for the inclusion of a new transfer station and waste processing facility to be located at 900 Baldwin Avenue in Pontiac. The Oakland County Department of Economic Development & Community Affairs has worked with the Oakland County Solid Waste Planning Committee (SWPC) to consider the proposed amendment. To date, the following steps and actions have taken place:

- Approval by the SWPC to commence 90-day public comment period – November 21, 2013
- 90-day public comment period held – December 14, 2013 – March 17, 2014
- Public Hearing held - February 26, 2014
- SWPC approval of amendment via resolution - March 26, 2014
- Approval of amendment by Oakland County Board of Commissioners - April 17, 2014

The next step in this process is to seek approval of the amendment by the 60 Oakland County communities that are covered by the Oakland County Solid Waste Plan. Per Public Act 451, Part 115, Solid Waste Management, Section 11536, a solid waste plan amendment must receive support via resolution by no less than 67% of the local units of government within the respective county before being sent to the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality for final approval.

I am forwarding the county's approved resolution, the proposed amendment and a sample approval resolution. Please present this to your board or council for consideration by June 30, 2014. Please send an email to Whitney Calio of my staff, at caliow@oakgov.com letting her know when you will consider the resolution and also notify her of the outcome. Certified copies of all resolutions should be sent to: Whitney Calio, Oakland County Planning, 2100 Pontiac Lake Road, #41W Waterford, MI 48328.

MEMO

To: City Manager Rod Cook

From: Fire Chief Mike Kennedy

Date: May 2, 2014

Reference: 224 South Lafayette - Demolition Fees

The property owner (Mr. Gene Carroll of New Hudson, MI) of 224 South Lafayette has contacted the fire department offering the structure for training prior to demolition. This property is a residential structure behind the South Lyon Bakery. The building is structurally sound, and the fire department could gain some very good training. We would not be conducting any live fire training. We would conduct search and rescue evolutions along with fire suppression scenarios using theatrical smoke.

Chief Collins has also expressed interest in the police department using the structure for tactical entry training.

DTE and Consumers Energy have already disconnected services, and Mr. Carroll will follow-up with the Water Department for a final disconnect. Mr. Carroll has expressed interest in having the structure torn down in June.

As an appreciation to Mr. Carroll for making the structure available for training, I would request that City Council waive the normal city demolition permit fees. There is a $50.00 flat demolition fee plus a $.05 / square foot fee. The house is 1,600 ft². The total waived fees would be $130.00.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Chief Kennedy and Chief Collins

This matter is probably not ready for Council approval. My review of title indicates that Mr. Carroll's company, Lafayette Group Development, LLC, holds only a land contract purchasers interest in the larger property known as 222-228 S. Lafayette Street. The current legal title holder is Paula Allen, the land contract seller. A land contract works like a mortgage, but the seller remains in title until the final payment. Thus, Ms. Allen is the legal owner and Mr. Carroll's company holds a possessory and legal interest in the property. See Memo of Land contract attached.

What this means is that all parties with an interest in the Property must sign off on this Agreement. The Agreement will need to be revised to reflect the foregoing facts, but before I spend time doing that, I suggest that we find out if Ms. Allen is on board. Also, I don't know what the timing requirement on this matter are. If timing is a concern, I would be willing to present a revised agreement to Council for approval conditioned on execution by both the land contract parties.

Let me know where we're at on this tomorrow.

Michigan gets serious about keeping money and jobs out of the landfill through recycling

NINA IGNACZAK
TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 2014

Along with trash, Michigan has buried dollars and jobs in landfills for years.

That's despite a target set in 2007 in the State's solid waste policy to achieve a 50 percent recycling rate in Michigan and 24 years of implementing Michigan's bottle deposit law. While the bottle bill has driven a 97 percent recycle rate for beverage containers in Michigan, those containers account for only a fraction of the tons of recyclable materials thrown away by Michiganders every year.

"There is so much latent potential in Michigan's recycling industry," says Mike Csapo, general manager of the Resource Recycling and Recovery Authority of Southwest Oakland County. "We are nowhere near the state's goal of a 50 percent recycling rate, and just the commodity value alone of reaching that level would be about $500 million, and that's before any value is added by tapping into markets for recovered materials."

Julie Metty Bennett,
Recycling Expert

Julie Metty Bennett is an owner and senior vice president at Public Sector Consultants, a Lansing-based public policy research and program management firm. Issue Media Group (IMG) spoke with Metty Bennett to get her thoughts on what Michigan needs to do to improve its recycling performance.

IMG: Why does Michigan's recycling rate compare so poorly to that of other states?

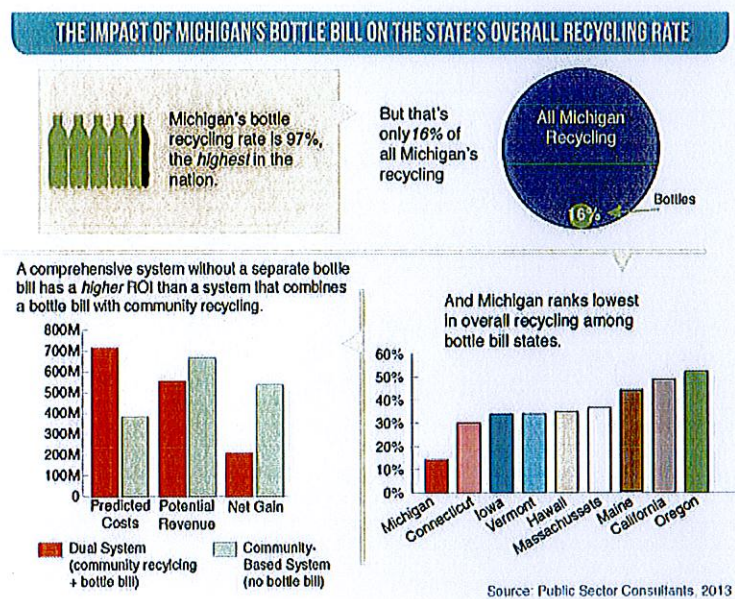

Metty Bennett: This is one of the challenges with the bottle bill. I think as a state, we should be very proud that the bottle bill causes us to recycle 97 percent of bottle purchases. But I think it's given us a false sense of pride related to recycling in general.

Michigan ranks behind many other states in terms of overall recycling rates and has the lowest recycling rate among states with bottle deposit laws, according to a 2013 report by Public Sector Consultants.

According to Kerrin O'Brien, executive director of the Michigan Recycling Coalition, no one is exactly sure what Michigan's recycling rate is.

"The number that is currently being used is a 14.5 percent recycling rate," says O'Brien, noting that the number was derived from several estimates. "I don't know if anybody has real confidence in that number. And just knowing that one number doesn't really give us the kind of information we need to help guide policy and programs—it doesn't tell us what is getting recycled, what is not getting recycled, what is being pulled out of the waste stream and what is still going into landfills that has high value," she adds.

But perhaps that's about to change.

Csapo and O'Brien are among 9 leaders in the recycling industry tapped by Governor Snyder to serve on a new Michigan Recycling Council. The body is charged with guiding implementation of Michigan's Residential Recycling Plan, a new plan that addresses benchmarking and data collection of recycled materials, public education, increasing access to recycling, and market development. The plan is supported by a $1 million appropriation requested by Snyder for 2015.

Snyder recently announced the new council and plan on a tour of Clean Tech Inc., a manufacturing facility in Dundee, Michigan that uses recycled plastics to make food-grade and non-food grade packaging. Having access to local sources of recycled commodities would be a boon for Clean Tech and other Michigan businesses that rely on recycled materials as feedstock in their manufacturing processes.

"I think there's a huge amount of potential throughout the state on market development," says Matt Flechter, recycling and composting coordinator at the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality. "Most states have made a stronger effort than Michigan has to establish recycling markets for a variety of materials using typical economic development tools."

In Emmett County, local leaders have been developing local recycling markets for years without much state leadership. Supported by a strong county solid waste plan and

It's a pretty inconvenient and messy system and it takes a lot of effort to pay deposits, store containers, and then spend time to bring containers back to the store. People feel they have accomplished a lot by doing that, so when it comes to the detergent bottles and the tin cans, people are just throwing those in the garbage, and it's a real problem

IMG: How well does Michigan perform in recycling other materials beyond beverage containers?

Metty Bennett: First, I think it's important to note that we really don't know what our recycling rate is exactly. Michigan does not require waste haulers and municipalities to report how much is being recycled, and so they don't do that. So we're kind of guessing. Based on some estimates, we think Michigan's rate is about 14.5 percent

IMG: What does Michigan need to do to ramp up our recycling efforts?

Metty Bennett: If we really want to do better at recycling, we need to know more about how much we are already recycling. The state has a goal for a 30 percent waste diversion rate, but how are we ever going to know if we get there without tracking how we're doing? Other states are much better at tracking this information. And we don't do a good job of providing convenient access to recycling. For the recycling market to take off, it needs to be really easy and affordable for everyone.

IMG: How do other states with bottle bills compare to Michigan?

Metty Bennett: What we have found is that it doesn't matter if a state has a bottle bill. You can have great recycling rates with a bottle bill or without one. But as common sense would tell you, if you have two systems (a state-run system for bottles and a second system for everything else) that it is more expensive overall. So our recommendation is to have a single system and to invest in it, especially because one of the most valuable recyclable materials is the beverage container and it hurts local programs to not have access to that commodity.

IMG: How can the state of Michigan play a stronger leadership stronger role in recycling?

Metty Bennett: I want to give a lot of credit to the governor who specifically said he wanted to get people recycling, and Michigan ordinance, Emmett County's recycling center operates entirely without tax support, funding its operations with revenue from the sale of recycled goods. The county ordinance targeted a 40 percent waste diversion rate by 2012, which the county met, according to Lindsey Walker, outreach coordinator with Emmett County.

"It's important to identify local markets because it makes a difference to the economy of Michigan," says Walker. "We find viable and preferably local markets and manufacturers to turn that recyclable commodity into a new product."

Emmett County sells marina shrinkwrap to Petoskey Plastics in Petoskey, juice and broth cartons to Great Lakes Tissue in Cheboygan, and roof shingles to Payne & Dolan, an asphalt manufacturer with offices in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Recycling just makes good business sense. That's how Bill Gurn, maintenance manager at Holland-based Haworth, sees it. The furniture company operates plants in Michigan, India, China, Germany, Switzerland, and Portugal, all of which, according to Gurn, are now landfill-free. This means they recycle virtually all of their waste stream.

"We began making a serious investment in recycling in 1992 when we built a 19,000 square-foot recycling center at the Holland plant," says Gurn. "We went from 18 million pounds recycled that first year to 53 million pounds in 2010, generating annual revenue between $1.4 and $2 million per year from the sale of those commodities."

After Haworth became landfill-free in 2009, it began implementing practices to reduce its waste, which has resulted in a decreased volume of materials processed through the recycling center.

"Our end goal is not to recycle everything that we scrap," says Gurn. "Our next step should be figuring out how to reduce our scrap. So in 2010 we started tracking our seven largest waste commodities and challenged our manufacturing teams to reduce those volumes."

As a result of these efforts, Haworth saw a 5 million pound recycling volume reduction in 2012.

"It reduces our operating costs, increases the profitability of the product and the company, and gets us down a path past just recycling," says Gurn.

Market development is absolutely critical to driving Michigan forward in recycling, according to O'Brien.

"As we get better at pulling recycled resources out of households and businesses, we are going to have more commodities available for manufacturers," she says. "And it will cost less money for manufacturers to use those local commodities, so we will be able to attract new businesses and manufacturers to our state."

But any market development program must start with a solid understanding of local resources, something Michigan sorely lacks today, according to Csapo. Snyder's plan calls for enhanced monitoring and data collection of recycled commodities throughout the state.

"You can't measure your progress toward a goal you can't measure," he says. "So that means collecting data and being able to understand the markets and what collections are out there and identifying ways to help make those B2B and B2C connections to help drive economic growth."

Department of Environmental Quality director Dan Wyant, who assembled a recycling workgroup to look at recycling issues

Editor's note: On April 14, 2014, Gov. Snyder announced a new recycling initiative that includes a plan of action for residential recycling with a focus on benchmarking and data collection, public education, convenient access, and market development.

I think the state needs to invest in public education to create a culture of recycling. We've sort of been led into thinking we are doing well because of the bottle bill, but containers are such a small percentage of our waste stream. And the state can also help to make it more affordable and convenient at the local level by helping to fund the basic infrastructure and providing technical assistance is important.

IMG: How would repealing the bottle bill impact Michigan's recycling program?

Metty Bennett: I'm passionate about the whole idea of having the market work as it should. Some of that market failure is a direct result of the bottle bill. Although I have a soft spot in my heart for it, when you look at how markets work and talk to local recycling authorities, they need that material. People don't think of it as a market, but that is how it functions. Removing the bottle bill by itself is not going to increase recycling; there are a lot of other things that need to happen first. But I do agree that having the bottle bill means more government intervention, so the market is not working the way it needs to.

Repealing the bottle will help make the market work better. Wouldn't you rather just put your unwanted containers in your recycling bin? Not to mention the retailers for whom the bottle bill has created a very expensive and inconvenient collection and processing requirement, and one for which they are not well compensated.

IMG: How has your work helped to bring clarity to these issues for policymakers and the public?

Metty Bennett: This is a good example of PSC's role in the state — to look at these policy issues and inform them with data, so that we can conduct policy conversations based on facts and information, not emotion.

Please be advised this office represents the City of South Lyon in connection with its self-insurance program.

Also be advised that Public Act 222, enacted in January of 2002, to set forth the conditions under which a claim can be made against a municipality for a sewer backup. All five (5) conditions must be met. The conditions are:

1. The governmental agency at the time of the event owned, operated or directly or indirectly discharged into the portion of the sewage disposal system that allegedly caused damage or injury.
2. The sewage disposal system had a construction, design, maintenance, operation or repair defect.
3. The governmental agency knew or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known about the defect.
4. The governmental agency having a legal authority to do so failed to take reasonable steps in a reasonable amount of time to repair, correct or remedy the defect.
5. The defect was a substantial proximate cause of the event and the property damage physical injury.

It was determined that the sewer system servicing your residence did not have a defect as defined by Public Act 222. A Blockage consisting of grease and debris was dislodged from the main. This is a transient condition which does not meet the conditions set forth in PA 222. Therefore, we must deny your claim.

Sincerely,

Louise Duchesneau

Dear Chief Collins –

I'd like to express my gratitude for the outstanding hospitality extended to me last Saturday (5/3) during my Citizens Police Academy ride-along with Officers Douglas Baaki and Mike [pardon me, but I didn't catch Mike's last name]. They were both very friendly and informative and took the time to patiently explain road patrol and police work generally. It was an excellent experience for me. Please pass on my sincere thanks to them for a great day.
