News

The library will be having a fundraiser on Monday November 20th by selling original artwork created and donated by local artist Roy Lord. The artwork is currently on display in the library and will be available for sale on Monday, November 20th from 10 am to 5 pm. $5 each or 5 for $20. All proceeds go to support library programming.

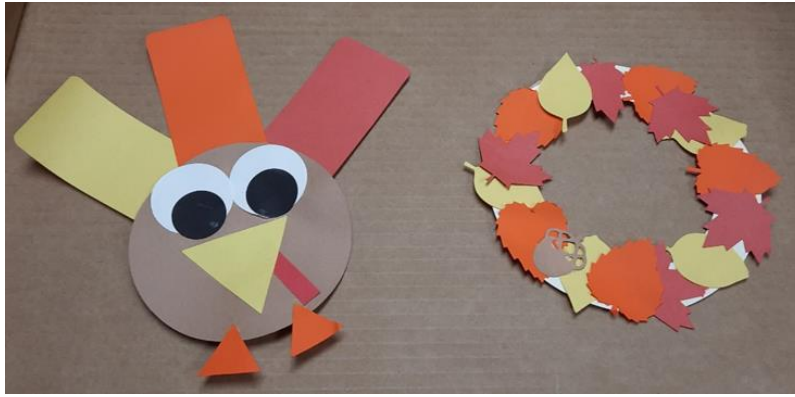

In October, the staff noticed that someone tried to censor one of our Book Displays. The staff created a collection of Juvenile non-fiction books about puberty and coming of age, and someone decided to replace them and conceal the original titles around the library. The staff noticed the mischief, found the original titles, and recreated the display. We will be keeping our eye out for any more interference with our patrons' right to read.
