Volunteers in September

- Angie Moore – Youth Volunteer

Other News

- The Library Council Chamber is almost ready for the October meeting. The chairs and desks have been set-up, and the AV will be completed before the October meeting.

- The new entrance to the main area of the library has been completed and the doors look wonderful.

- The new Children's Librarian Celeste Gleason starts work on Monday, October 3rd. Celeste is a writer, writing mentor, and a creative coach, helping writers learn to stop sabotaging their creative lives. She holds an MFA in Creative Writing from Stonecoast where she studied Young Adult and Popular Fiction. She is also interested in personal growth, mindfulness, yoga, and hiking. Celeste is looking forward to creating a calendar of programs for the library, so if you stop by, please feel free to leave a suggestion in the box.
