Comments from the Public: None

Board Member's Report: Mr. Fishbaugh announced that the Little Leaders would be performing at the next THS football game. He gave an update on Turner Days and wanted to thank Nathan Fort for being on the committee. The TUSD 202 had some questions regarding the Capital Outlay projects. The TRC board would discuss this during the next joint meeting and when Rocki Mayes, our Chairperson will be present.

Lauren Aiello announced that the TRC Activities room will be completed in November. Also, the THS marching band will be performing at the TRC Football games on Saturday, October 16, 2023 at the THS football field. There will be approximately 80 members performing.

Round Table:

A. Questions for the Attorney: None

New Business: None

Executive Director's Q&A: Robbie briefly discussed new programs and events that were coming in the near future. TRC is getting ready to be very busy again with Turner Days and Spooktacular. TRC will have three floats entered into the parade and will have a booth set up for Turner Days. Spooktacular will be held at the TRC community center this year and has numerous trunk or treat cars signed up for this popular TRC event.

Board Members Round Table:

Jack Tolle: Mr. Tolle is anxious to get an agenda on upgrading Highland Park.

Ronald Florez: Nothing at this time

Jim Jarsulic: Elder Bearies game day is in full swing at the Community Garden. The building at the garden is just about complete. The garden itself has quieted down for the year. Jim also announced that the garden's fall fest with the Turner Library will be held in October.

Chandra Ward: Chandra discussed the annual TCC meeting on October 16, 2023. Mrs. Ward encouraged all to attend, but urged everyone to RSVP as a meal will be served. Chandra also discussed a police grant where community members can order neighborhood watch signs for free.
