Pledge of Allegiance

Council Member Easton led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mayor's Report

Mayor Ing-Moody reported on the following: Public works has been working diligently on snow removal. Due to the accumulation received, snow storage has become a big issue. There is a meeting scheduled for Wednesday December 28, 2022 to discuss this issue. With the recent temperatures, public works has been working on a lot of frozen meters and pipes. She noted that they have been doing an excellent job. Mayor Ing-Moody reported that the Council Retreat is scheduled for February 10-11. It will start in the afternoon of Friday and go through Saturday to work with everyone's work schedules. Council has not done a retreat in a couple of years due to Covid-19, and she is excited to resume this important gathering. Council Member Easton gave Public Works Director and his crew a shout out for all the hard work that Public Works has been doing. Mayor Ing-Moody responded that she will get the compliment to Andrew. Mayor Ing-Moody reiterated that with the holidays Town Hall will have restricted hours and to please keep that in mind.

Staff Reports

Chief Budrow reported that this is his last day and he will be handing the reins over to Officer Sheehan as Interim Chief until another Chief is hired.

Clerk Kilmer reported that the town is working on simple end of the year tasks. He is thankful to be in new building with plenty of space to do said tasks. Clerk Kilmer also reported that new staff has been doing an exceptional job.

Commission/Committee/Board Reports

Council Member Auburn reported that she traveled to Wenatchee, and it was a mess with the snow and ice all over the roads. She expressed her gratitude to come home and see how clean Twisp's streets were. Council Member Auburn gave shoutouts to public works. She also attended the Twisp Chamber meeting; she stated that there is not a lot of news. Council Member Auburn was pleased to announce that Mistletoe Madness was a huge success. She also attended the NCW tourism meeting and was surprised at how many people came.

Recognition-

Mayor Ing-Moody stated that with this being Chief Budrow’s last day, she wanted to present him with a plaque honoring his time served with the Town of Twisp. She, council, and staff all congratulated Chief Budrow while thanking him for everything he has done.
