

Wasco County

VOLUNTARY INVITATION TO SELF-IDENTIFY

Wasco County is subject to certain governmental recordkeeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights laws and regulations. As part of its compliance efforts, Wasco County invites applicants to voluntarily self-identify their gender and race/ethnicity.

Wasco County is an equal opportunity employer. All employment decisions are based on qualifications and are made without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, disability status, veteran status, marital status, and/or any other legally protected status. As required by law, any information that you provide on this form will be treated as confidential and will be stored separate from other personnel information. The information will be used only to demonstrate compliance with the provisions of applicable state and federal laws, executive orders, and regulations, including any that require the information to be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. When reported, data will not identify any specific individual.

Submission of this information is completely voluntary. Your decision to submit or not submit information will not affect your employment status in any way. A refusal to provide this information will not subject you to any adverse treatment.
