Advice from DMV

DMV cannot advise you which, if any, of the laws or forms referenced in this packet fit your particular situation. There may be other laws or legal procedures that could be followed in disposing of an abandoned vehicle or obtaining an interest in a vehicle. If you have questions concerning what laws may apply or about the process for claiming or foreclosing a lien, you may wish to seek legal counsel for advice, or research on your own.

Note: The statutes provided at the back of this packet are amended by Oregon Laws 2007 and will be codified in the 2007-2008 Oregon Revised Statutes.

General information

Some situations where ownership of a vehicle may be transferable through the possessory lien process:

1. Vehicles owned by a tenant or occupant legally responsible for rent, which was brought upon the leased premises, and retained by the landlord to secure payment of rent. The landlord may have a claim to a lien under ORS 87.162. If you foreclose a lien based on these statutes, title should be applied for using a Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure, Form 735-518.
2. Vehicles abandoned on private property and removed at the request of the owner or lawful possessor of the property, in accordance with Chapter 98. The person towing the vehicle may have a claim to a lien under ORS 98.835. If you foreclose a lien based on these statutes, title should be applied for using a Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure, Form 735-519.
3. Vehicles repaired, stored, towed, etc, at the request of the owner or lawful possessor of the vehicle. The person who repaired, stored, or towed the vehicle may have a claim to a lien under ORS 87.152. If you foreclose a lien based on these statutes, title should be applied for using a Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure, Form 735-520.
4. Vehicles abandoned by a tenant with whom you have a lease or rental agreement (ORS 90.425). If you foreclose a lien based on this statute, title should be applied for using a Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure, Form 735-521.
5. Vehicles towed at the request of an appropriate authority (Oregon State Police, a county, city) when the vehicle was abandoned or taken into custody by an appropriate authority and towed at the request of the authority. The person towing the vehicle may have a claim to a lien under ORS 98 and ORS 87. If you foreclose a lien based on these statutes, title should be applied for using a Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure, Form 735-6604.
6. Vehicles left or parked in violation of ORS 98.810 and removed from either proscribed property or from a parking facility at the request of the owner of the parking facility or the owner of the proscribed property. The towler, who removed the vehicle, may have a claim to a lien under ORS 98.812. If you foreclose a lien based on these statutes, title should be applied for using a Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure, Form 735-6605.

Possessory Liens/Abandoned Vehicles

Oregon DMV

Abandoned Vehicles

In order to title any vehicle, including abandoned vehicles, one must have acquired a legal interest through some legal process. Generally, it will not be the property owner, but whoever purchases the vehicle at a subsequent sale by a lien claimant or authority, who may apply for title.

There are various provisions available for disposal of abandoned vehicles including the following:

- For vehicles abandoned on any public way, state law (ORS Chapter 819) allows for the appropriate authority (e.g. state, county, city) to remove the vehicle. Some local governments may also have ordinances governing the disposal. If the vehicle is abandoned on federal property, federal laws would apply.
 - For vehicles abandoned on private property, Oregon law (ORS 98.830) states:
"A person who is the owner, or is in lawful possession of private property on which a vehicle has been abandoned may have a tow tow the vehicle from the property if:
(1) The person affixes a notice to the vehicle stating that the vehicle will be towed if it is not removed. The notice required by this subsection must remain on the vehicle for 72 hours before the vehicle may be removed.
(2) The person fills out and signs a form* that includes:
(a) a description of the vehicle to be towed;
(b) the location of the property from which the vehicle will be towed;
(c) a statement that the person has complied with subsections (1) of this section. The form should be given to the tow company who removes the vehicle.
- *NOTE: DMV does not provide you with a form. The information needed {described in (2) (a),(b),(c)} can be written on a separate piece of paper.
- For vehicles abandoned on private property, ORS 819.280 allows a person to make a request to an authority (state, city, or county) to dispose of a vehicle abandoned on private property, when it is appraised at a value of $500 or less, by a person who holds a certificate issued under ORS 819.230, and the person making the request is determined to be in lawful possession of the vehicle. If the authority chooses to dispose of the vehicle, the authority may only dispose of the vehicle and its contents to a person who holds a valid dismantler certificate issued under ORS 822.110. The authority may charge the person requesting the disposal a fee to dispose of the vehicle.
 - For vehicles left or parked in a parking facility or on proscribed property defined in ORS 98.805, ORS 98.812 states that "...the owner of the parking facility or the owner of the proscribed property, after notice to the local law enforcement agency, may have the motor vehicle towed from the parking facility or the proscribed property and placed in storage at a public garage or public parking lot." The statute further states that the garagekeeper or public parking operator is entitled to a lien on the vehicle and contents.
 - There may be other provisions that could apply, such as when the vehicle owner was a former tenant of the property owner and owes rent, or when the property owner performed labor on the vehicle or stored the vehicle at the request of the vehicle owner or lawful possessor. Again, you may wish to seek legal counsel or research on your own if you have questions about whether you can claim a lien, or what steps you must follow to claim and to foreclose on such a lien.

Titling a previously abandoned vehicle:

To obtain title, a person must have acquired a legal interest in a vehicle. In most cases people do this through some form of purchase or financial agreement; that change of interest is accomplished through the voluntary assignment of the existing title for the vehicle.

In the case of an abandoned vehicle, any transfer of interest will be involuntary and require some form of legal process (operation of law). One cannot simply obtain title because the vehicle was left on one's property.

Possessory Liens/Abandoned Vehicles Oregon DMV

In most cases of abandoned vehicles, the existing title is not available for transfer. In lieu of a properly endorsed title, and in addition to any other title requirements, DMV must receive satisfactory evidence of the facts entitling the applicant to title. For example:

For an abandoned vehicle sold by an appropriate authority (for example, state police, county sheriff, or a city) and where the vehicle is not otherwise subject to salvage title procedures, the purchaser may apply for title. A bill of sale to the purchaser from the appropriate authority will be required in support of the application for title. The bill of sale must describe the vehicle, identify the statutes or legal authority under which the sale was held, and indicate that former interest holders were notified.

For a vehicle sold through foreclosure of a lien by the party who towed the vehicle, whoever purchased the vehicle at the lien foreclosure sale may apply for title. A certification from the tow company concerning the lien and foreclosure and to whom the vehicle was sold is required in support of the title application. (Tow companies can obtain certification forms from DMV.)

For a vehicle sold through foreclosure of some other type of lien foreclosure, whoever acquires the vehicle through the foreclosure process may apply for title. A certification from the lien claimant is required in support of the title application. Certification forms for the more common liens (for example, possessory labor/storage liens, landlord liens) are included in this packet or may be obtained from DMV. Forms are also available on the Internet at: www.odot.state.or.us/dmv

Documents and fees needed to apply for title:

After the lien has been foreclosed, the appropriate Certificate of Possessory Lien Foreclosure form should be fully completed and signed by the person foreclosing the lien. The form is then given to the purchaser. The purchaser or a subsequent buyer may then apply for title.

To apply for title, the purchaser must submit:

- ♦ an Application for Title and Registration, Form 735-226, fully completed and signed.
- ♦ ONE of the Certification of Possessory Lien forms (the one that covers your situation), fully completed and signed by the authorized representative of the business or the person claiming the lien. Your application will be rejected if you submit more than one type of form for certifying foreclosure.
- ♦ The appropriate title application fee. If the vehicle was last titled in Oregon, you must submit an application for title to DMV within 30 days from the date of the auction to avoid paying late fees.

NOTE: If the vehicle was last titled in another state, or must be titled as assembled, reconstructed or replica, either DMV or the Oregon State Police must complete a physical inspection of the vehicle's identification number. The fee for the inspection is $7.

Lien Claimants Required To Keep Records

Lien claimants are required to keep records sufficient to establish that all vehicles being sold or offered for sale were acquired by the lien claimant as the result of a possessory lien. Records must be retained for a period of five years by the lien claimant. The following records must be retained:

- ♦ A signed and dated copy of an original tow notification, repair order, an impound form from law enforcement or other similar form or document showing how the lien claimant acquired possession of the subject vehicle, or a written record that identifies the person or entity that authorized the lien claimant to take possession of the subject vehicle and the time and date of contact;
- ♦ A signed and dated copy of an original claim of possessory lien/ notice of foreclosure sale form applicable to the possessory lien or similar form or document showing the owner of the vehicle was notified of the possessory lien;
- ♦ A signed and dated copy of the DMV certificate of possessory lien foreclosure form applicable to the possessory lien as specified in OAR 735-020-0012 for each subject vehicle; and
- ♦ A bill of sale, if applicable.

A lien claimant must notify DMV within 10 days of the sale or transfer of interest of a vehicle. DMV must receive a completed and signed Notice of Sale or Transfer of Vehicle (DMV Form 6890), if the subject vehicle is covered by an Oregon title; or a completed and signed Notice of Lien Foreclosure; Sale or Transfer of Vehicle (DMV Form 6890A), if the subject vehicle is not covered by an Oregon title.

Possessory Liens/Abandoned Vehicles Oregon DMV

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

Out-of-State Possessory Liens:

- I have a possessory lien document, sheriff's sale document, or similar ownership document issued by a jurisdiction outside of Oregon. Can I apply for an Oregon certificate of title using one of these documents?

No. Oregon DMV will not accept an application for vehicle title when ownership is being transferred under out-of-state abandoned vehicle laws or out-of-state foreclosure laws. An Oregon title will be issued only after the lien claimant or purchaser is issued a certificate of title by the jurisdiction where the foreclosure occurred.

Donating an Abandoned Vehicle:

- A vehicle has been abandoned on my property. Can I donate it to a charity?

No, you cannot give away an abandoned vehicle, even if it's on your property. Oregon law contains several specific provisions for the disposal of abandoned vehicles. See the "Abandoned Vehicles" section for additional information on the disposal of abandoned vehicles.

Possessory Lien Foreclosure Forms:

- Do I need to complete the entire form?

Yes. A possessory lien foreclosure form must be fully completed and signed before it will be accepted.

- Are there additional forms that need to be completed?

See the "Documents and Fees" section for additional information on the forms that you will need to apply for title after a possessory lien is officially foreclosed.

- Are there special instructions for completing the form?

No. Just be sure that each section of the form is complete and that you have signed the form. Your signature certifies that you have complied with all applicable lien foreclosure laws and rules. If you're not sure, you may want to seek legal advice from an attorney.

- Which possessory lien foreclosure form do I use to file a possessory lien?

DMV cannot dispense legal advice. This includes advising you on the particular foreclosure process or foreclosure form that applies to your situation. If you're not sure, you may want to seek legal advice from an attorney.

- Can I just complete and submit all DMV possessory lien forms?

No. Your application will be rejected if you submit more than one form. Each form references different laws, rules and requirements. It's your responsibility to know the laws that apply to your situation. If you're not sure, you may want to seek legal advice from an attorney.

Professional Lien Services:

- Am I required to use a professional lien service?

No. You can file the lien yourself or use a professional lien service. In either case, all applicable laws and rules must be followed.

Requesting Information on a Vehicle Owner:

- Am I required to contact the vehicle owner when foreclosing a lien?

It depends on the type of lien that is being foreclosed and the laws that apply. If you're not sure, you may want to seek legal advice from an attorney.

- Can I request information from DMV to notify the vehicle owner for purposes of a lien foreclosure?

Yes. DMV will process a records request for this purpose if the request is made in writing, includes a $4 processing fee and contains all of the following information:

- The vehicle year, make, model, identification number (VIN) and license plate number;
- A signed statement that the record information is requested for purposes of "providing notice of a lien foreclosure." Include a citation of the applicable law(s) authorizing the foreclosure (ORS #, Local Ordinance #, etc.). In addition to the requirements above, records requests from a business must include the name of the business or be on official letterhead stationery and must be signed by an authorized representative.

Request Example: I hereby request the vehicle record for the vehicle listed below. Any personal information contained in the record will be used solely for the purpose of providing notice of a lien foreclosure under ORS 123.456. 1994 Ford PU, plate # ABC123, VIN 123456789ABCDEFGH.

Submit your request and $4 fee to: DMV Record Services Unit, 1905 Lana Ave NE, Salem, OR 97314.

87.152 Possessory lien for labor or material expended on a chattel. A person who makes, alters, repairs, transports, stores, pastures, cares for, provides services for, supplies materials for or performs labor on a chattel at the request of the owner or lawful possessor of the chattel has a lien on that chattel in the possession of the person for the reasonable or agreed charges for labor, materials or services of the person, and the person may retain possession of the chattel until those charges are paid. [1975 c.648 s.3]

87.162 Landlord's lien. Except as provided in ORS 87.156 and 90.120, a landlord has a lien on all chattels, except wearing apparel as defined in ORS 23.160 (1), owned by a tenant or occupant legally responsible for rent, brought upon the leased premises, to secure the payment of rent and such advances as are made on behalf of the tenant. The landlord may retain the chattels until the amount of rent and advances is paid. [1975 c.648 s.5; 1981 c.258 s.1; 1997 c.374 s.8]

87.166 Attachment of liens. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the liens created by ORS 87.152 to 87.162 attach to the chattels described in those sections when:

- (a) The services or labor are performed or the materials or money are furnished by the lien claimant to the lien debtor; and
- (b) The charges for the services or labor performed and materials or money furnished are due and the lien debtor either knows or should reasonably know that the charges are due.

(2) The lien created by ORS 87.162 attaches to the chattels described in that section on the 20th day after rents or advances occur or attaches when the occupant or tenant attempts to remove the chattels from the premises while there are unpaid rents or advances. A person claiming a lien under ORS 87.162 may take the chattels subject to that lien into the possession of the person when the lien attaches or at any time thereafter. [1975 c.648 s.6]

87.172 Time period before foreclosure allowed. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person claiming a lien under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 must retain the chattel that is subject to the lien for at least 60 days after the lien attaches to the chattel before foreclosing the lien.

(2) A person claiming a lien under ORS 87.152 for cost of care, materials and services bestowed on an animal must retain the animal for at least 30 days after the lien attaches to the animal before foreclosing the lien. If the animal is a dog or cat, the period shall be at least 15 days.

(3) A person claiming a lien under ORS 87.152 for the cost of removing, towing or storage of a vehicle that is appraised by a person who holds a certificate issued under ORS 819.230 to have a value of:

- (a) $1,000 or less but more than $500, must retain the vehicle at least 30 days after the lien attaches to the vehicle before foreclosing the lien.
- (b) $500 or less must retain the vehicle at least 15 days after the lien attaches to the vehicle before foreclosing on the lien. [1975 c.648 s.7; 1979 c.401 s.1; 1981 c.861 s.1; 1983 c.338 s.881; 1993 c.326 s.9; 1995 c.758 s.18; 2005 c.738 s. 7]

87.176 Fees for storage of chattel; notice to lien debtor; effect of failure to comply. (1) When the lien claimed under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 is for other than the storage of a chattel, if the lien claimant incurs expenses in storing the chattel prior to foreclosure, the lien claimant may charge reasonable fees for the storage of the chattel for a period not exceeding six months from the date that the lien attaches to the chattel. A lien claimant seeking to recover storage fees for storage expenses incurred prior to foreclosure shall send a written notice, within 20 days from the date that the storage fees began to accrue, to the lien debtor and every other person that requires notification under ORS 87.196. The claimant shall transmit the notice by certified mail. A person notified under ORS 87.196 need not receive the notice within the 20-day period, but within a reasonable time. If the lien claimant fails to comply with the notice requirements of this subsection, the lien claimant is limited to recovering reasonable fees for the storage of the chattel prior to foreclosure for a period of time not exceeding 20 days from the date that the lien attached to the chattel.

(2) When the lien claimed under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 is for the storage of a chattel, the lien claimant shall send a written notice stating that storage fees are accruing, within 20 days after the chattel has been placed in storage, to the lien debtor and every other person that requires notification under ORS 87.196. The claimant shall transmit the notice by certified mail. A person notified under ORS 87.196 need not receive the notice within the 20-day period, but within a reasonable time. If the claimant fails to comply with the notice requirements of this subsection, the amount of the claimant's lien shall be limited to a sum equal to the reasonable storage expenses incurred within the 20-day period. [1975 c.648 s.8; 1993 c.385 s.1]

87.182 Effect of prior security interest on method of foreclosure. (1) When a lien created by ORS 87.162 is subordinate to a prior duly perfected security interest in a chattel as provided in ORS 87.146, the lien created by ORS 87.162 shall be foreclosed by suit as provided in ORS chapter 88. (2) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, liens created by ORS 87.152 to 87.162 may be foreclosed by suit as provided in ORS chapter 88, or by sale of the chattel subject to the lien at public auction to the highest bidder for cash. [1975 c.648 s.9]

87.186 Location of foreclosure sale. Foreclosure of liens created by ORS 87.152 to 87.162 by public sale shall occur in the county in which the lien claimant obtained possession of the chattel subject to the lien from the lien debtor. [1975 c.648 s.11]

87.192 Notice of foreclosure sale to lien debtor; public notice. (1) Before a lien claimant forecloses a lien created by ORS 87.152 to 87.162 by sale, the lien claimant shall give notice of the foreclosure sale to the lien debtor by first class mail with certificate of mailing, registered mail or certified mail sent to the lien debtor at the lien debtor's last-known address. - (c) If the lien is for the cost of removing, towing or storage of a vehicle that is appraised at a value of $500 or less by a person who holds a certificate issued under ORS 819.230, at least 30 days before the foreclosure sale.
- (d) If the lien is for the cost of removing, towing or storage of a vehicle that is appraised at a value of more than $1,000 by a person who holds a certificate issued under ORS 819.230, at least 30 days before the foreclosure sale.

(2) The lien claimant shall give public notice of the foreclosure sale by posting notice of it in a public place at or near the front door of the county courthouse of the county in which the sale is to be held and, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, in a public place at the location where the lien claimant obtained possession of the chattel to be sold from the lien debtor. The following apply to notice under this subsection:

- (a) Notice under this subsection must be given no later than the time required for notice to a lien debtor under subsection (1) of this section.
- (b) This subsection does not require posting of notice at the location where the chattel was obtained if the chattel is a vehicle required to obtain a certificate of title issued under ORS chapter 803.

(3) If the chattel to be sold at a foreclosure sale is something other than an abandoned vehicle and has a fair market value of $1,000 or more, or if the chattel to be sold is an abandoned vehicle and has a fair market value of $2,500 or more, the lien claimant, in addition to the notice required by subsection (2) of this section, shall have a notice of foreclosure sale printed once a week for two successive weeks in a daily or weekly newspaper, as defined in ORS 193.010, published in the county in which the sale is held or, if there is none, in a daily or weekly newspaper, as defined in ORS 193.010, generally circulated in the county in which the sale is held.

(4) The notice of foreclosure sale required under this section shall contain a particular description of the property to be sold, the name of the owner or reputed owner thereof, the amount due on the lien, the time and the place of the sale and the name of the person foreclosing the lien. [1975 c.648 s.10; 1981 c.861 s.2; 1983 c.436 s.1; 1983 c.338 s.882; 1993 c.326 s.10; 1995 c.758 s.19; 2005 c.738 s.8]

(2) A person notified under this section may discharge the lien and preserve the person's security interest by paying the lien claimant the amount of the lien claim and reasonable expenses actually incurred in foreclosing it. If the person does not so discharge the lien before the day of the foreclosure sale, the person's security interest is extinguished.

(3) If the chattel to be sold at a foreclosure sale is a chattel for which a certificate of title is required by the laws of this state and if the lien claimant does not notify a person as required by this section, the chattel remains subject to that security interest or lien and the buyer of the chattel at a foreclosure sale held under ORS 9.370, 87.142 to 87.490, 87.705, 87.710, 87.910 and 90.120 takes the chattel subject to the security interest or lien.

The county treasurer shall credit the remainder to the general revenue fund of the county, subject to the right of the lien debtor or the representative of the lien debtor, to reclaim the remainder at any time within three years of the date of deposit with the treasurer. If the remainder is not demanded and claimed within such period, it shall become the property of the county. [1975 c.648 s.12]

(5) The notice required under subsection (3) of this section must state that:

- (b) The tenant or any lienholder or owner must contact the landlord by a specified date, as provided in subsection (6) of this section, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal property;

- (f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, the landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided by subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any lienholder or owner;
- (g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal property;
- (h) If the tenant or any lienholder or owner fails to contact the landlord by the specified date, or after that contact, fails to remove the personal property within 30 days for recreational vehicles, manufactured dwellings and floating homes or 15 days for all other personal property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes that the personal property will be eligible for disposal pursuant to subsection (10)(b) of this section and the landlord intends to dispose of the property if the property is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief and intent; and
- (i) If the personal property includes a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home and if applicable, there is a lienholder or owner that has a right to claim the recreational vehicle, dwelling or home, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant, lienholder or owner must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal property is:

ORS 90.425

(b) For all other abandoned personal property, not less than five days after personal delivery or eight days after mailing of the notice.

(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord:

(a) Shall store any abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home on the rented space and shall exercise reasonable care for the dwelling or home;

(b) Shall store all other abandoned personal property of the tenant, including goods left inside a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon the rented space outside a recreational vehicle, dwelling or home, in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable care for the personal property, except that the landlord may:

(A) Promptly dispose of rotting food; and

(B) Allow an animal control agency to remove any abandoned pets or livestock. If an animal control agency will not remove the abandoned pets or livestock, the landlord shall exercise reasonable care for the animals given all the circumstances, including the type and condition of the animals, and may give the animals to an agency that is willing and able to care for the animals, such as a humane society or similar organization;

(c) Except for manufactured dwellings and floating homes, may store the abandoned personal property at the dwelling unit, move and store it elsewhere on the premises or move and store it at a commercial storage company or other place of safekeeping; and

If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this section, the landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to allowing the tenant, lienholder or owner to remove the personal property. Acceptance by a landlord of such payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver pursuant to ORS 90.415.

(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant, lienholder or owner of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home does not respond within the time provided by the landlord's notice, or the tenant, lienholder or owner does not remove the personal property within the time required by subsection (8) of this section or by any date agreed to with the landlord, whichever is later, the tenant's, lienholder's or owner's personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder or owner that have been given notice pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution of sale proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest to the personal property and may not claim or sell the property.

- (11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section must:
 - (A) For a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, be conducted consistent with the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable; or
 - (B) For all other personal property, be conducted under the provisions of ORS 79.0610.
- (b) If there is no buyer at a sale of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the personal property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the landlord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.
- (12) Notwithstanding ORS 446.155 (1) and (2), unless a landlord intentionally misrepresents the condition of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord is not liable for the condition of the dwelling or home to:
 - (a) A buyer of the dwelling or home at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section, with or without consideration; or
 - (b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the dwelling or home pursuant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.
- (13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:
 - (A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and
 - (B) Unpaid rent.
- (b) If the sale was of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, after deducting the amounts listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on the dwelling or home.
- (c) If the sale was of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, after deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable, the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid balance owed on the lien on the recreational vehicle, dwelling or home.
- (d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if applicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant or owner the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an itemized accounting.
- (e) If the tenant or owner cannot after due diligence be found, the landlord shall deposit the remaining proceeds with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred. If not claimed within three years, the deposited proceeds revert to the general fund of the county and are available for general purposes.

(a) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home after a determination described in subsection (10)(b) of this section.(b) There is no buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under subsection (11) of this section.

(c)(A) There is a buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under subsection (11) of this section;

(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is $8,000 or less; and

(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on the dwelling or home after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section.

(d)(A) The landlord buys the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under subsection (11) of this section;

(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is more than $8,000;

(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on the manufactured dwelling or floating home after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section; and

(D) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home.

(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant, lienholder or owner resulting from storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the landlord's deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant, lienholder or owner.

(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in any action brought by a tenant, lienholder or owner against a landlord for loss or damage to such personal property disposed of pursuant to this section.

(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

(b) A lienholder or owner aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the actual damages sustained by the lienholder or owner. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and

(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

(18) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, the provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned vehicle, dwelling or home also apply to any lienholder except that the lienholder may not sell or remove the vehicle, dwelling or home unless:

(a) The lienholder has foreclosed its lien on the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home;

(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (24) of this section; or

(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have expired.

(19)(a) In the case of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home but not including a dwelling or home abandoned following a termination pursuant to ORS 90.429 and except as provided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a timely response to a notice of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of this section and so requests, a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the lienholder providing that the dwelling or home may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 12 months. A storage agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the personal property.

(b) The lienholder's right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant, owner or, in the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee to remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property required by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy to the landlord within the 60-day period.

(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the landlord and the lienholder, that:

(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in subsection (7)(d) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described in ORS 90.510 (8), if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer service and natural gas and if incidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may not be due more frequently than monthly;

(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date required in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges described in the rental agreement between the landlord and the tenant; and

(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal property is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agreement between the landlord and the tenant.

(e) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder has the right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of the lien. Selling the property includes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously agreed to by the landlord and tenant regarding the landlord's approval of a purchaser or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable conditions by the landlord regarding approval of any purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for occupancy of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

(f)(A) If the lienholder violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 90 days' written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for the termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the dwelling or home without further notice to the lienholder.

(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days' written notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the rented space if the lienholder has paid all storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

(g) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the lienholder.

(20) If the personal property consists of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home and is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who was the only tenant and who owned the dwelling or home, this section applies, except as follows:

(a) Any personal representative named in a will or appointed by a court to act for the deceased tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be contacted by the landlord in the event of the tenant's death has the same rights and responsibilities regarding the abandoned dwelling or home as a tenant.

(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be:

(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and

Statutes Referenced on Oregon DMV Forms

(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated person if actually known to the landlord.

(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section must refer to any personal representative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and must incorporate the provisions of this subsection.

(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period provided by subsection

(6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the dwelling or home may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate proceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage agreement, subsection (19)(c), (d) and (f)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or person having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the representative or person has the right to remove or sell the dwelling or home, including a sale to a purchaser or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously agreed to by the landlord and tenant regarding the landlord's approval for occupancy of a purchaser, heir or devisee or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable conditions by the landlord regarding approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the dwelling or home upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the representative or person stating facts sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the representative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the dwelling or home without further notice to the representative or person.

(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the representative or person has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the representative or person.

(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of a manufactured dwelling, floating home or recreational vehicle abandoned under this section constitutes an extreme health or safety hazard under state or local law and the agency determines that the hazard endangers others in the immediate vicinity and requires quick removal of the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The landlord shall comply with all provisions of this section, except as follows:

(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of the property must be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice required by subsection (3) of this section.

(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person must remove the property must be not less than seven days after the tenant, lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person contacts the landlord.

(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be as provided in subsection (5) of this section, except that: (A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the property must be consistent with this subsection;

(B) The notice must state that a governmental agency has determined that the property constitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and

(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency's determination to the notice.

(d) If the tenant, a lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person does not remove the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

(22) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home that is owned by someone other than the tenant, the provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned vehicle, dwelling or home also apply to that owner, with regard only to the vehicle, dwelling or home, and not to any goods left inside or outside the vehicle, dwelling or home.

(23) In the case of an abandoned motor vehicle, the procedure authorized by ORS 98.830 and 98.835 for removal of abandoned motor vehicles from private property may be used by a landlord as an alternative to the procedures required in this section.

(24)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant's abandoned personal property without complying with the provisions of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no more than seven days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a writing entered into in good faith:

(A) The landlord;

(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and

(C) In the case of a manufactured dwelling, floating home or recreational vehicle, any owner and any lienholder.

(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, require a tenant, a personal representative, a designated person or any lienholder or owner to waive any right provided by this section.

(25) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal property.
