Castle Knoll waterline proposal update

Mayor Christopher just wanted to give Council an update on Castle Knoll waterline proposal. Mayor Christopher had a discussion with Judge Executive Chuck Dills and there would possibly be Grant money that the County would get in July that could help with Castle Knoll. Mayor Christopher is still going to propose the homeowners buy material and the city do the work. If the city were to get this money, then we could put it toward the material the homeowners would pay for to lower their cost.

City Council authorization to proceed with presenting Castle Knoll waterline proposal

Robert Perry made the motion to present the homeowners of Castle Knoll with the option of them buying the materials for the extension and the City of Williamstown doing the work. John Coleman seconded the motion, and the vote was as follows:

All present voted in favor.
