ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The next Special Council Meeting will be held on Tuesday, July 18, beginning at 6:00 p.m.
- Mayor Christopher informed audience that there were cupcakes available if any of the Council members or anyone in the audience would like one

JOHN COLEMAN ENTERED THE COUNCIL MEETING AT 6:03 P.M. DURING THE START OF NEW BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS

Chief Les Whalen – Fire Department Personnel/Fiscal Year 2023/2024 Budget

Chief Whalen was not here. Mayor Christopher informed the Council that Chief Whalen wanted to make Council aware that limiting the fire department to ten employees is a little difficult due to the hours of the department. Not all part-time employees are eight-hour shifts employees, and he needs more employees to cover all shifts.

Water Superintendent Tim Beach – Water Tower Discussion

Superintendent Tim Beach introduced Brad Amos from USG Water Solutions. Mr. Amos was here to present to the Council a five-year financial spread of renovation on the City’s water towers. USG Water Solutions would contract with the City of Williamstown to repair and maintain the water towers. There would be a five -year financial spread so the City of Williamstown would know for budgeting purposes. Council was given information to look over for the next council meeting.

Enterprise Fleet Management – Discussion

Catherine Blazer was here to present to Council a fleet synopsis on all City vehicles for the City of Williamstown. Mrs. Blazer feels Enterprise can help the City of Williamstown with their fleet of vehicles. Council was given the information to look over for the next council meeting.
