INFO ABOUT EXHIBIT:

This exhibition was originally presented at Buffalo State College from Nov. 1-30, 2017 thanks to the E.O. Smith Arts and Humanities Faculty Development Award.

The physical exhibit will be on display at Casey Middle School on the evening of the presentation and follows

8 survivors and 1 liberator through the themes of: movement, anti-Semitism, corporation, and resilience.

Grigory Shershnevsky was born in Vilna, Lithuania shortly before the German occupation in 1941. He was "adopted" by a Christian Polish women who also saved a number of other children. His father was active in the underground resistance movement and found Grigory after the war. His mother was presumed murdered by Germans.
