6.08.03 | Public disturbance noises--General prohibition.

It is unlawful and shall constitute a public nuisance under Section 6.08.010 for any person to knowingly cause or make, or for any person in possession of property knowingly to allow to originate from the property, unreasonable noise that intrudes upon the property of another.

- A. Illustrative Enumeration. Public disturbance noises shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following sounds or combinations of sounds:
 - 1. Frequent, repetitive or intermittently continuous sounds made by any domestic animal.
 - 2. Frequent, repetitive or intermittently continuous sounds made by any horn or siren attached to a motor vehicle, except for emergency vehicles or as otherwise specifically permitted by law.
 - 3. Frequent, repetitive or intermittently continuous sounds made in connection with the starting, operating, repairing, rebuilding or testing of any motor vehicle, motorcycle, race vehicle, off-highway vehicle or combustion engine.
 - 4. Frequent, repetitive or intermittently continuous sounds made by the use of a musical instrument or other device capable of producing sound when struck by an object, or a whistle, or of a device capable of producing or reproducing sounds.
 - 5. Amplified sound audible fifty feet or more away from its source or which is plainly audible within another building or structure.
 - B. The following sounds are exempt from the provisions of subsection A of this section when performed between the hours of eight a.m. and six p.m.:
 - 1. Sounds relating to temporary projects for the maintenance or repair of homes, grounds and appurtenances, including but not limited to lawn mowers, saws, hammering and gardening.
 - 2. Sounds originating from construction sites as a result of normal, routine construction activity.
 - 3. Sounds created by the construction, installation or repair of public utility services or public facilities.
 - 4. Sounds allowed by permit.
 - C. Enforcement. Whenever a complaint is received and a violation of this section is verified to be in-progress by the responding Police Officer, or whenever it is stated in writing by a person having separate residences in a neighborhood that any person is violating any of the provisions of this section, and a Police Officer has determined that such activity would constitute a violation of this section, the Police Officer shall advise the person of the complaint and violation. Failure of any person to cease shall be considered a second violation of this section.
 - E. Penalty. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or ninety days in jail, or both such fine and jail term. A minimum fine for the first violation of this chapter shall be one hundred dollars, and a minimum fine for a second or subsequent violation shall be twice the amount as for a first offense.

6.12.030 Permit application. (Parking)

- C. Applicants shall include specifications for parking of motor vehicles, designating area, ownerships, copies of permits or consent to use, etc., signed by property owners of the proposed parking area. Permit applicants, sponsors and property owners of parking areas for such functions shall provide clearly designated parking spaces together with sufficient attendants to control ingress and egress to the roads and streets maintaining access for safety, fire protection and emergency vehicles of the town.
